

Citizen Empowerment Course

Module 6 | Assessment Exercise

Read each statement carefully and mark the correct answer

1. The Cypriot NGO sector is relatively large compared to other European countries.

Answer: True/False

2. Non-Governmental Organizations (NGOs) are independent, for-profit organizations that operate for the betterment of society.

Answer: True/False

3. NGOs in Cyprus actively work to promote social change and address various pressing issues including migration, re-unification and gender equality.

Answer: True/False

4. Non-Governmental Organisations (NGOs) in Cyprus are required to register with the government under relevant legislation to operate officially.

Answer: True/False

5. The main source of funding for Cypriot NGOs comes solely from the national schemes.

Answer: True/False

6. The Cypriot civil society is predominantly composed of large, well-established organisations.

Answer: True/False

7. The Commissioner for Volunteering and NGOs was established in 2013 to encourage active civic participation at the local level and promote the role of organised civil society.

Answer: True/False

8. There is a high level of active citizenship participation in Cyprus, with many individuals regularly involved in volunteer work, attending community meetings, or participating in public processes.

Answer: True/False

9. The first step in setting up an NGO in Cyprus is to find your interest and identify a cause or problem you want to address.

Answer: True/False

10. When registering a new association in Cyprus, you need to have at least five founding members on the Board of Directors.

Answer: True/False

11. The Founding Act of a foundation in Cyprus must include the dedicated property, which should amount to at least one thousand euros (€1,000).

Answer: True/False

12. The registration procedure for a federation and/or union of organizations in Cyprus is different from the procedure for registering an association.

Answer: True/False

13. Non-profit companies in Cyprus are exempt from the same requirements as for-profit companies, such as audited accounts and annual levy.

Answer: True/False

EMERGE

EMpowerinG civic Engagement and participation